Synopsis:

Uni the Unicorn is thrilled to attend her first sleepover with her best friends, Lily the Ladybug and Ollie the Owl. As the sun sets, the trio gathers at Lily's cozy home, adorned with twinkling fairy lights and a cloud-shaped sleeping bag. Uni can't wait to dive into the adventure that awaits.

At the sleepover, the friends engage in an array of delightful activities. They create shadow puppets on the wall, tell spooky stories to each other, and munch on sweet treats. Uni discovers that sleepovers aren't just about sleeping—they're about bonding with friends and making memories that will last a lifetime.

As the night progresses, Uni feels a pang of homesickness. She misses her parents and her special star that helps guide her through the night. With the support of her friends, Uni finds a way to create her own cozy comfort zone, using her imagination and the love surrounding her.
