Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef are two of Australia's most popular tourist destinations, and for good reason. The city of Cairns is a vibrant and cosmopolitan hub, with a wide range of restaurants, bars, and shops. The Great Barrier Reef is the world's largest coral reef system, and it's home to an incredible variety of marine life.

But what if I told you that you could experience all that Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef has to offer for under $250? It's true! Here's how to do it:

1. Book your flights

The first step is to book your flights to Cairns. There are a number of airlines that fly to Cairns, so you should be able to find a good deal. If you're flying from within Australia, you can expect to pay around $100-$200 for a round-trip ticket. If you're flying from overseas, you can expect to pay around $300-$500 for a round-trip ticket.

2. Book your accommodation

Once you've booked your flights, you need to book your accommodation. There are a number of hostels and guesthouses in Cairns, so you should be able to find a place to stay for around $20-$30 per night. If you're looking for something a little more comfortable, you can expect to pay around $50-$100 per night for a hotel room.

3. Book your tours

The next step is to book your tours. There are a number of tour operators that offer day trips to the Great Barrier Reef from Cairns. You can expect to pay around $100-$150 for a day trip. If you're looking for a more comprehensive experience, you can book a multi-day tour that includes snorkeling, diving, and island hopping. You can expect to pay around $200-$300 for a multi-day tour.

4. Food and drinks

Food and drinks in Cairns are relatively affordable. You can expect to pay around $10-$15 for a meal at a casual restaurant. If you're looking for something a little more special, you can expect to pay around $20-$30 for a meal at a fine dining restaurant.

5. Activities

There are a number of free and low-cost activities that you can enjoy in Cairns. You can visit the Cairns Esplanade, the Cairns Aquarium, or the Cairns Botanic Gardens. You can also go for a swim at the Cairns Lagoon or take a walk along the Cairns Beaches.

6. Transportation

Transportation in Cairns is relatively easy and affordable. You can get around the city by bus, taxi, or Uber. You can also rent a car if you want to explore the surrounding area.

7. Budget

Based on the information above, you can expect to spend around $250 on a trip to Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef. This includes the cost of flights, accommodation, tours, food, drinks, activities, and transportation.

Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef are two of Australia's most popular tourist destinations, and for good reason. The city of Cairns is a vibrant and cosmopolitan hub, with a wide range of restaurants, bars, and shops. The Great Barrier Reef is the world's largest coral reef system, and it's home to an incredible variety of marine life. And the best part is that you can experience all that Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef has to offer for under $250. So what are you waiting for? Book your trip today!
