

Iraq, Afghanistan, and the Home Front: In the Words of Troops and Their Families

This book is a powerful and moving account of the sacrifices made by American troops and their families during the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. It is a story of courage, resilience, and love.

The book is based on interviews with troops and their families, and it tells their stories in their own words. We hear from soldiers who have seen combat, from families who have lost loved ones, and from those who have struggled to adjust to life after war.
