

Never Broken Songs Are Only Half The Story: Embracing the Power of Vulnerability

Have you ever felt like your voice was never heard? Like your story was never truly understood? In her deeply moving and inspiring book, 'Never Broken Songs Are Only Half The Story', author Emily Rose takes us on a transformative journey of overcoming adversity and finding resilience through the power of songwriting and storytelling.

Through Emily's raw and honest account of her own struggles with mental health, abuse, and addiction, we witness the transformative power of vulnerability. She shares how songwriting became her therapy, her way of processing and healing from her past traumas. Her songs are a testament to the human spirit's ability to endure and thrive, even in the face of adversity.
