Early Martyrs

Saint Polycarp

Polycarp, the Bishop of Smyrna, was one of the most influential figures in the early Christian Church. He was a disciple of the Apostle John and a close friend of Saint Ignatius of Antioch. Polycarp was known for his unwavering faith and his courageous stand against heresy. In 155 AD, he was arrested and burned at the stake for refusing to renounce his faith.

Saint Perpetua

Perpetua was a young Christian woman who lived in North Africa in the 3rd century AD. She was arrested for her faith and imprisoned with her fellow Christians. Perpetua wrote a vivid account of her experiences in prison, including her visions and the courage she found in her faith. She was eventually killed in the arena, but her story has inspired Christians for centuries.

Medieval Heroes

Saint Francis of Assisi

Francis of Assisi was one of the most popular and influential saints in Christian history. He was born in Italy in 1181 and renounced his wealthy lifestyle to follow Christ in poverty and humility. Francis founded the Franciscan Free Download, which quickly grew into one of the largest religious Free Downloads in the world. He was known for his love of nature, his compassion for the poor, and his unwavering faith.

Saint Joan of Arc

Joan of Arc was a young French peasant girl who led the French army to victory in the Hundred Years' War. She was born in 1412 and claimed to have received visions from God telling her to lead the French army to victory. Joan's courage and leadership inspired the French army and helped to turn the tide of the war. She was captured by the English and burned at the stake as a heretic, but she remains a national heroine in France and a symbol of courage and faith.
