A Must-Read for Hockey Fans

The Philadelphia Flyers are one of the most successful and storied franchises in NHL history. They have won two Stanley Cups, made it to the Stanley Cup Finals 16 times, and have retired the numbers of 11 legendary players.

The Complete History of the Philadelphia Flyers Hockey Club is the definitive account of this storied franchise. This book tells the story of the Flyers from their humble beginnings in 1967 to their present-day status as one of the most popular and successful teams in the NHL.

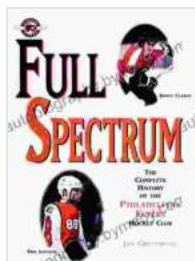

In this book, you'll learn about:

* The early years of the Flyers, when they struggled to find their footing in the NHL
* The glory years of the 1970s, when the Flyers won two Stanley Cups and became one of the most feared teams in the league
* The lean years of the 1980s and 1990s, when the Flyers struggled to make the playoffs
* The resurgence of the Flyers in the 2000s, when they made it to the Stanley Cup Finals three times
* The present-day Flyers, who are looking to add to their legacy of success

The Complete History of the Philadelphia Flyers Hockey Club is a must-read for any hockey fan. It's a comprehensive and engaging account of one of the most successful and storied franchises in NHL history.
