A Cultural Tapestry

Beyond its natural wonders, Cedar City boasts a vibrant arts scene that rivals much larger cities. The Utah Shakespeare Festival, one of the oldest and most respected Shakespeare festivals in the world, brings world-class theater to the heart of Utah. The Southern Utah Museum of Art showcases an impressive collection of regional and contemporary art, while the Cedar City Arts Council supports a thriving community of local artists. From live music venues to art galleries, Cedar City offers a captivating blend of culture and creativity.

A Journey Through History

Cedar City's rich history is woven into its very fabric. The city was founded in 1851 by Mormon pioneers who established a thriving agricultural community. Today, the Frontier Homestead State Park Museum preserves the legacy of these early settlers, offering a glimpse into their daily lives and struggles. The Iron Mission State Park tells the story of the iron industry that once flourished in the area, leaving behind a legacy of industrial heritage.
